

The Tocsin of Revolt, and other Essays	The Tocsin of Revolt, and other Essays Brander MATTHEWS (1852 - 1929) This is a volume of essays by American author Brander Matthews. Matthews is today mostly remembered for his short pieces of speculative fiction, but his essays are also of enduring interest. This volume contains 15 essays on different topics, ranging from contemporary history (1922) over literature to philosophy. They are written in a very accessible style and will interest readers and listeners today as much as they must have interested readers when the book was published in 1922. - Summary by Carolin Read by LibriVox volunteers.
